

Return to Hawai'i State Judiciary Press Releases

For Kaua'i Media Release: November 15, 2004

Ilokano Court Interpreters Needed on Kaua'i

The Hawai'i State Judiciary is seeking qualified Ilokano speaking interpreters to serve as independent contract court interpreters for the state courts. Individuals must be able to interpret fluently in both English and Ilokano. Though interpreters for all languages are needed, those fluent in Ilokano are especially needed at this time.

Forms for persons interested in registering to become court interpreters are available at the Fifth Circuit Court, 3059 Umi Street, Room #111.

###

Contact: Marsha E. Kitagawa 539-4909

*For more information, contact the public affairs office at 808-539-4909
or via email at pao@courts.state.hi.us*